Is a plaster that is rapidly superceding the old style lime mortar. By the aid of chemistry the different materials are combined as to make an Adamant Wall

FIRE,

WATER AND

WIND-PROOF.

Always uniform, nearly as hard as marble, and as durable. It is the only hard plaster that is elastic, adhesive, non-porous and practically indestructible.

Adamant is especially adapted for churches, hospitals and schools, as well as there being nothing better for residences. It is the safest plaster known for decorating.

INTRODUCTION.

The eleventh volume of HOFFMANNS' CATHOLIC DIRECTORY AND CLERGY LIST QUARTERLY is herewith presented to its patrons and the public.

All reports have been carefully revised and made as complete as was possible from the material at our disposal.

A number of improvements and additions have again been made in the present volume.

All reports of Dioceses in the United States and Canada are now arranged in such a manner that the report of each parish is given complete under its proper heading, thus showing, what missions are attended from each parish, if any, whether the parish has a school connected with it, and what other institutions are connected with or attended from it. In this way, all that belongs to each parish is shown at a glance.

We have also added a complete alphabetical list of all places in the United States and Canada in which churches are either located, or which are regulary attended. By referring to this index the page will be found on which all information regarding any place is given, without necessitating a search through the book to find what diocese the place belongs to.

In the complete edition of the Directory statistical reports from Dioceses in Mexico, Central and South America have been added, as far as they could be procured — this being the first time that these reports have been published in any Directory. We hope to be able to complete these and present a complete report of all Dioceses on this Continent in the future.

We hope that these important additions will meet with favor by the many patrons of the Directory and will still further increase its popularity with them.

ADVERTISERS.

We call the attention of our subscribers to the numerous advertisements of our patrons in this Directory. Their generous aid in advertising, has gone far toward defraying the enormous expense of publishing this work. When in want of goods in their line, you cannot do better than call on, or correspond with them, they are representative houses in their respective lines, and as such we cordially recommend them. When writing, please mention Hoffmanns' Catholic Directory.

We tender our sincere thanks to the Most Rev. Archbishops, the Rt. Rev. Bishops, and the Rev. Chancellors and Secretaries of the various Dioceses for their courtesy and care in revising the lists and in furnishing information asked.

We shall endeavor to perfect this publication continually and request our patrons to inform us of all necessary changes and corrections, and thus assist us in making the "Directory and Clergy List Quarterly" reliable and complete.

ROCK HILL COLLEGE.

ELLICOTT CITY, MARYLAND.

Directed by the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This Institution is situated upon the slope of one of the picturesque hills overlooking Ellicott City, within a few minutes' walk of the railroad station. It is of easy access from Baltimore and Washington. The location is considered one of the healthiest in Maryland. The surrounding country, in whatever direction it is viewed, presents scenery attractive for its boldness and variety.

Land to the extent of about fifty acres is attached to the College. Water from springs on the neighboring hills courses by its own force and pressure throughout the buildings and premises, furnishing a copious supply for all purposes of health and cleanliness.

The College is conducted by the Brothers of the Christian schools, a body of men devoted exclusively to the cause of Christian education. Their methods of teaching have been successful in all parts of the civilized world and in every grade of school. These methods have been handed down to them by their blessed founder John Baptist de la Salle, with whatever improvements the experience of two centuries has been able to suggest. The Brothers have, in consequence, reduced teaching to a science. Christian educators it is their great aim, not merely to instruct the intellect, but chiefly to cultivate the heart and mould the Christian gentleman.

The students are given every opportunity for developing healthful physiques. The play-grounds are large and shaded. There is no lack of outdoor exercise. Athletic sports are encouraged. A large bathing and skating pond, well-equipped gymnasiums, and other means of exercise and amusement are at the disposal of the students, and they avail themselves there of according to times and seasons. The health of the students is looked after with parental solicitude.

COLLEGE RULES.

The school year begins on the first Monday in September, and ends on or about the second last Monday in June. It is divided into two terms of five months each, dating respectively from the first of September and the first of February.

Students are received at any time during the year, but never for a shorter period than one term of five months. They are examined on entering, and classified according to their proficiency. The curriculum runs through a Preparatory, Commercial and Collegiate, Literary and Scientific course. For particulars address,

BROTHER MAURICE, President.

HOLYDAYS OF OBLIGATION IN THE UNITED STATES,

On which every Catholic who has reached the age of reason is obliged to hear Mass and to rest from servile work, unless hindered by sickness or other sufficient cause:

1. All Sundays in the year.
2. The Circumcision of Our Lord, or New Year's Day, January 1.
3. The Ascension of Our Lord, May 14.
4. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin, August 15.
5. All Saints, November 1.
6. The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin, December 8.
7. The Nativity of Our Lord, December 25.

FASTING DAYS,

Binding on every Catholic who has reached the age of twenty-one, and is not lawfully excused:

1. The Fridays in Advent.
2. All the week-days of Lent, beginning on Ash-Wednesday, February 19.
3. The Ember-days.
4. The Vigils of Pentecost, May 23; of the Assumption, August 14; of All Saints, October 31; of Christmas, December 24.

When a feast falls on Monday, the Vigil is kept on the Saturday preceding.

In some dioceses the Friday of the Ember-Days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

The Ember-Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the third Sunday of Advent; 2nd, in the spring, immediately after the first Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-Week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 14th of September. The object of their observance is to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on Ember Saturday.

DAYS OF ABSTINENCE,

On which we are not allowed to eat flesh-meat:

All Fridays in the year, and all fasting-days of obligation, excepting those on which the use of flesh-meat is expressly allowed by the proper authorities. Soldiers and sailors in the service of the United States, however, are exempted from the rule of abstinence all trough the year, excepting upon Ash-Wednesday; upon Thursday and Friday in Holy Week: and upon the Vigils of the Assumption and Christmas.

BENAVIDES Y NAVARRETE, Cardinal Francis of Paula, Archbishop of Saragossa, was born May 14, 1810, at Baeza, and ordained in 1836. In 1840 he was appointed rector of the Seminary at Baeza, and was created Bishop in 1870. Some twenty years later, he was selected to fill the important office of Patriarch of the Indies, and was, at the same time, created a Cardinal by Pius IX. He was appointed Archbishop of Saragossa in 1881. The late Cardinal had been distinguished all his life as an ardent defender of the Catholic faith. He was a preacher of much merit and a corresponding member of the Spanish Academy.

BONAPARTE, Cardinal Lucien, died November 20, at Rome, Italy. He was born in Rome, November 15, 1828, and created Cardinal March 13, 1868. He was a Cardinal priest, the second in order of precedence.

From rector of Notre Dame de Roubaix he was appointed to the Bishopric of St. Denis, Reunion Island, and was consecrated Janury 5, 1851. He was transferred to the Episcopal See of Limorges March 19, 1857 and promoted to Toulouse July 30, 1859. He was created Cardinal May 12, 1879.

MALAGOLA, Cardinal Hamilcar, Archbishop of Fermo, died June 22. He was born at Modena, December 24, 1840, was educated at Rome in the Ghisleri College and the Academy of Noble Ecclesiastics, where he achieved great distinction. Pope Pius IX. named him Bishop of Asccoli Piceno in 1876, and in 1877 Archbishop of Fermo. He was created a Cardinal on January 16, 1893.

RUSSO-SILLA, Cardinal Louis, died May 29, at Rome. He was born at Palermo April 16, 1840. For a short time he was Papal Nuntius at Munich, Bavaria. He was created Cardinal December 14, 1891.

SANZ Y FORES, Cardinal Benedict, Archbishop of Sevilla, died November 1. He was born March 31, 1828, at Gaudia, archdiocese of Valencia. In 1868 he was appointed Bishop of Oricdo, was transferred to Valladolid in 1882. He was promoted to Sevilla in 1893 and created Cardinal January 16, 1893.

ARCHBISHOP.

DUBUIS, Most Rev. Claude Marie, formerly Bishop of Galveston, Tex., died May 21, at Vernaison, France. He was born in France in 1817. After his ordination he went to Texas, and was stationed at Castroville in 1847. There he lived in a hut until, with the assistance of a brother missionary, he was able to build, with his own hands, a residence and a schoolhouse. He was transferred to San Antonio in 1850, and had charge of the Church of San Ferdinando. At San Antonio he established a convent and a school of the Ursulines. He was appointed Bishop of Galveston in 1862, and was so successful in reorganizing his diocese after the Civil War that in 1874 it contained fifty-five churches, eighty-three priests and about 100,000 Catholics. He resigned his See in 1881, and remained Titular Bishop of Galveston until 1893, when he was promoted to an Archbishopric in partibus infidelium.

BISHOPS.

CONROY, Right Rev. John Joseph, D.D., Bishop of Curium and once Bishop of Albany, died November 19, at his home, in New York, after an illness of about ten days. At the age of 14 he came from Ireland to this country and entered Mount St. Mary's College at Emmittsburg. He was ordained there in 1845, and became professor at St. John's College, Fordham. He was appointed Bishop of Albany on July 7, 1865, and was consecrated on October 15, 1865. In 1877 he resigned on account of ill health, and in 1878 he was transferred to the see of Curium. In Albany Bishop Conroy built the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, St. Joseph's Church, and bought and consecrated St. Agnes' Cemetery. For the last fourteen years he has lived in New York City. He was remarkable for his administrative ability, and was known as a profound thinker and a learned theologian.

Late Bishop of Sacramento, Cal.

Right Rev. Patrick Manogue, D.D., Bishop of Sacramento, Cal., died February 27, 1895. Bishop Manogue was a native of County Kilkenny, Ireland, and lacked but a fortnight of sixty-four years at the time of his death. He came to the United States in 1848. After residing for two years in Connecticut, he went to Chicago, where he spent four years in the University of St. Mary's of the Lake. In 1845 he arrived in California and began working in the mines at Moore's Flat, Nevada Co., to obtain money enough to defray the cost of the advanced course of ecclesiastical studies he desired to take.

When he reached the location he was without means. He worked every day in the mines and devoted his spare time to study. Having saved the desired money, he placed himself in correspondence with Archbishop Alemany, and by his advice he left for France, where he entered the seminary of St. Sulpice, at Paris, for a four years course of instruction. On Christmas, 1861, he was ordaind by Cardinal Merlos. The early part of the subsequent year he left Paris, and arrived in Virginia City in June, 1862.

In 1868 Father Manogue was made Vicar-General of the diocese of Grass Valley, and in 1881 was made Coadjutor to Bishop O'Connell of Grass Valley. On January 16, 1881, at old St. Mary's Cathedral, he was consecrated Bishop by the late Archbishop Alemany, assisted by Bishops Mora and O'Connell.

On the death of Bishop O'Connell in 1884, Bishop Manogue succeeded to the full charge of the diocese. On May 28, 1886, the diocese of Grass Valley ceased to exist, that of Sacramento being established in its stead. The great external work of his episcopate was the erection of the magnificent Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament in the episcopal city, Sacramento. The cornerstone of this building was laid June 12, 1888, and on July 1, 1889, it was completed and dedicated.

RIGHT REV. RUPERT SEIDENBUSCH, D.D.,O.S.B.,

First Abbot of St. John's Abbey, Titular Bishop of Aila and formerly Vicar-Apostolic of Northern Minnesota.

Right Rev. Rupert Seidenbusch was born in Munich, Bavaria, October 13, 1830. In 1850 he graduated at the Seminary of Freising and came to America in that year in the company of the late Bishop F. X. Krautbauer, of Green Bay. He entered St. Vincent's Abbey, Pa., and was admitted as a novice by Abbot Boniface Wimmer. He made Solemn Vows in 1852 and in 1853 was ordained a priest by Bishop O'Connor of Pittsburgh. For two years after this he visited small missions at Greensburgh, Ligonier, Heyman's Bottom etc., and was then appointed pastor of St. Mary's, Elk Co., Pa.

In 1857 he was removed to Newark, N. J., where he built a church, which is one of the most imposing edifices of its kind in that city.

Five years later he was recalled to St. Vincent's, and appointed Prior by the late Archabbot Wimmer, which position he occupied for five years. When the Priory of St. John's, in Minnesota, was erected into an abbey by the Holy See he was elected Abbot by the Fathers in Minnesota Dec. 13, 1866, and received the benediction at St. Vincent's May 30, 1867.

In 1875 the Holy See created him Vicar-Apostolic of Northern Minnesota. He was consecrated by the late Archbishop Heiss at St. Cloud May 30, 1875. He removed to St. Cloud and from this point attended the wants of the vast Vicariate, which comprised all of Northern Minnesota—now the dioceses of St. Cloud and Duluth—and the Territory of Dakota as far west as the Missouri.

When in 1888 the Holy See erected the Vicariate of Northern Minnesota into a diocese, Bishop Seidenbusch felt that owing to his advanced age and enfeebled health he could not bear the burden many years longer and he accordingly resigned.

Since that time he spent most of the winters in the South. On Pentecost Sunday he celebrated Holy Mass for the last time. Later he experienced great weakness; he was led to the Priory and died on the following morning, June 3, 1895. He was overcome by excessive heat and suffered an apoplectic stroke.

RIGHT REV. FRANCIS HAAS, DEFINITOR GENERAL, O.M.CAP.

Right Rev. Francis Haas, O.M.Cap., was born at Metzerlen, Switzerland, Nov. 25, 1826. Having completed his classical studies at Lucerne and Solothurn, he pursued the theological course at the Universities of Freiburg (Breisgau), Tubingen and Munich. He was ordained Dec. 28, 1851, and for five years was the assistant of his aged uncle, who was then pastor of Liesberg. In Sept. 1856 he came to America with Very Rev. Bonaventure Frey, acting provincial of the province of St. Joseph, resolved to give all his energy to missionary work, and to multiply his forces by establishing the Capuchin Order in this country. When still secular priests Fathers Haas and Frey built their first convent in June 1857. They were invested with the habit of the Order Dec. 2, 1857. Father Francis naturally became the superior of the little community, and under the most adverse circumstances and almost unsurmountable difficulties he persevered at the head of the little band, that collected around him. When success at last seemed to dawn, all his labors were destroyed by fire Dec. 26, 1868. Not discouraged, he at once collected means to rebuild the monastery and reopen the college, which he had erected in 1861.

Having fulfilled the duties of superior for twenty years without interruption, he declined to be reelected in 1879, and went to Fond du Lac, Wis., to perform parochial duties, and provide for the definite erection of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Agnes and its approbation by the Holy See.

October 15, 1885, he was elected provincial, but before his term had expired he was called to Rome, Nov. 30, 1887, as Definitor General of the Order. In the summer of 1892, to recover his health, he returned to America, and, notwithstanding his waning strength, he continued to perform the duties of chaplain at the Motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Agnes, where he died June 21, 1895.

His learning, piety and prudence caused many of the clergy to chose him as their spiritual director and counsellor. Twice he was proposed to the Holy See as candidate for the bishopric.

His Holiness retains the Prefectship of the Congregation of the Holy Roman and Universal Inquisition, or Holy Office; the Consistorial Congregation; the Apostolic Visitation; the Protectorship of the Church and Chapter of SS. Celsus and Julianus; of the Cassinese Benedictine Congregation of the Primitive Observance; of the Order of Friars Minor; of the Archconfraternities of the Via Crucis; of the Lovers of Christ and Mary; of the Sacred Stigmata of St. Francis.

The Supreme Pontiff is assisted in the government of the Church by the Sacred College of Cardinals, and by several Sacred Congregations of which the Cardinals are the chief members; by the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Bishops; by the Apostolic Delegates, Vicars and Prefects, and by certain Abbots and Prelates.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the hierarchy; it often happens that many of the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests. The Sacred College of Cardinals, when complete, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, 50 Cardinal Priests and 14 Cardinal Deacons. (This number, however, is seldom complete).

The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the Supreme Council or Senate of the Church. They are advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff, and at the death of a Pope they elect his successor. The Cardinal Bishops occupy the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are Ostia and Velletri, Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Frascati, Palestrina, Sabina. The Cardinals of the second and third order take their titles from some of the oldest Churches in the City of Rome. The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon is First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the Administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

(Congregatio Cardinalium Concilii Tridentini Interpretum.)

This Congregation was founded by Pius IV., for the purpose of promoting the observance of the decrees of the Council of Trent. To this Pius V. added the interpretation of these decrees and the decision of all controversies arising from them. In 1587, this Congregation was also commissioned by Pope Sixtus V. to revise the decrees of all provincial Councils, and to see that all Bishops paid, at the time required by the Canons, their visits "ad limina apostolorum", and submitted to the Holy See a report of their dioceses.

Benedict XIV., however, appointed a special congregation in connection with the Council, for the purpose of examining the decrees of National and Provincial Synods, and a similiar one was constituted by Pius IX., for the special purpose of attending to the visits and reports of Patriarchs, Archbishops, and Bishops. Prefect: His Eminence Cardinal Angelo Di Pietro. Secretary: Mgr. The Pope in his Constitution Inscrutabili conferred upon it the most ample powers for the Propagation of the Faith, and especially for the superintendence of missions in countries where hereties or infidels had to be evangelized. For this purpose it could not only appoint and change the necessary ministers in the countries specially submitted to its care, but also perform everything else it considered either necessary or opportune for the advancement of religion in such districts and provinces. The jurisdiction proper of the Congregation extends to all territories which are governed "more missionum", or as missionary countries, i. e., not by bishops constituted in the regular hierarchy, but by Prefects and Vicars Apostolic. Certain countries, even where the regular hierarchy is established, such as Ireland, England, and Scotland, and the United States, are likewise subject to the Congregation, and transact almost all their business with the Roman Curia through it. Hence, applications for dispensations, etc., are addressed to this Congregation through its Secretary. The Congregation has, moreover, a legislative and judicial power; and by authority conferred upon it by Gregory XV., and confirmed by Urban VIII. and Innocent X., its decrees, signed by the Secretary, and confirmed by the Prefect, have the force and authority of an Apostolic Constitution.

All communications should be written in Latin, or, at least, in French or Italian, and addressed to the Secretary as follows:

A Sua Eccellenza Revma.,
Il Signor Segretario della Congregazione di Propaganda Fide,
Rome.

An Index or catalogue of wicked and dangerous books had already been drawn up at the Council of Trent, and approved by Pope Pius IV. Hence the name. Prefect: His Eminence Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli. Secretary: Mgr. Manolino Cicognani, O.P. Office: Palazzo della Cancelleria Apostolica.

The Clergy of Nebraska knowing the great fertility of the soil of Nebraska, the cheapness of land in this Garden of America and the easy methods of transit through the South Platte country—the most fertile portion of exceptionally fertile Nebraska—feel that they can with confidence invite all intending immigrants to open immediate correspondence with any of the priests above mentioned. For delicate persons the pure clear air of Nebraska cannot be excelled, for all persons Nebraska has a very healthy climate.

Bishop of St. Augustine, cons. May 13, 1877.—Res., Cathedral, St. Augustine, Fla

Late Bishop—Rt. Rev. AUGUSTIN VEROT, D.D., cons. April 25, 1858, Vicar-Apostolic of Florida; translated to the See of Savannah in July, 1861; appointed Bishop of St. Augustine March, 1870; died June, 10 1876.

Vicar-General—Very Rev. WM. J. KENNY.—Res., Jacksonville, Fla.

CLERGY, CHURCHES MISSIONS AND SCHOOLS.

CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE.

Cathedral of St. Augustine, Rt. Rev. John Moore, D.D., Revs. Maurice P. Foley, D.D., and Michael Maher, assistants. The Parish of St. Augustine, by far the oldest in the land, has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, more than half a century before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is its unique privilege to have a full set of records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic, and continued to have a large preponderance of Catholics until quite recently.

School—Connected with St. Joseph's Academy.

Chapel of Our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The site of this chapel was discovered about 1870 and a new building erected on the old foundations. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, the Franciscan Friar Father Blas Rodriguez de Montes, was put to death there in 1597 by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. An oratory erected on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, and dedicated to Our Blessed Lady, perished during the political struggles of Florida; it was restored by Bishop Verot, but was since blown down in a gale of wind.

Catholic Population, about 7 000

"In estimating the Catholic Population of the diocese I have heretofore counted the Cubans, because they call themselves Catholics in their own country, but as very few of them go near the church and many of them even allow their children to die without baptism. I now leave them out of the count."

THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS.

(Office: 739 13th Street, Washington, D.C.).

The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions was established in 1874 by the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, upon the recommendation, and for and in behalf, of the Catholic Prelates having Indian Missions within the limits of their Dioceses, for the purpose of representing before the Government the interests and wants of the said Prelates in all matters pertaining to Indian affairs. It was, by Decree of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, which was approved by Rome, recognized as an Institution of the Church, and was by that Council placed under the charge of a Committee of seven Prelates, consisting of His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia; Most Rev. P. J. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco; Most Rev. P. L. Chapelle, Archbishop of Santa Fe; Rt. Rev. James A. Healy, Bishop of Portland; Rt. Rev. John B. Brondel, Bishop of Helena, and Rt. Rev. M. Marty, Bishop of St. Cloud. In 1894 this Committee was dissolved, and the Bureau as then constituted was superseded by a new corporation chartered by an Act of the Assembly of the State of Maryland—the incorporators being His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia, and Most Rev. M. A. Corrigan, Archbishop of New York, and its corporate name being "THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS". The new organization succeeded to all the rights and powers of, and all the property held by, the old incorporation; has adopted laws for the government and guidance of the Bureau, and has selected as its officers the following:

RT. REV. M. MARTY, Bishop of St. Cloud, President,
RT. REV. MONSIGNOR J. A. STEPHAN, Director,
REV. E. H. FITZGERALD, D.D., Assistant-Director, } EXECUTIVE BOARD.
REV. E. R. DYER, SS., D.D., Treasurer.
CHARLES S. LUSK, Secretary.

The principal work of the Bureau is the establishment of Boarding and Day Schools among the Indian Tribes, and the procurement from the Government of funds for their support and maintenance.

AMERICAN COLLEGES IN EUROPE.

PONTIFICAL COLLEGE OF NORTH AMERICA. — THE NATIONAL COLLEGE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AT ROME, ITALY. Founded by Pius IX. and formally opened by him Dec. 8, 1859; raised to the rank of Pontifical College by Leo XIII. by Apostolic Letters "Ubi primum" of Oct. 25, 1884, and destined for the education of students for the Church in the United States of America. Without dispensation from the Pope only students from America are admitted into the College.

Students enter for philosophy and theology, and sometimes also for humanities, and follow the course of the Urban College of the Propaganda for all branches.

A supplementary apartment has been opened lately where a few students are accommodated, that with proper permissions, desire to remain in Rome sometime after their ordination, in order to persue special studies, or to become acquainted with the practice of the Roman Congregations. Rev. Wm. H. O'Connell, rector; Rev. Torquato Armelleni, S.J., and Rev. Pio De Mandato, S.J., spiritual directors; Rev. John P. Farrelly, D.D., Magister pietatis. Number of students, 65.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY AT LOUVAIN, BELGIUM. This College has been established by several of the American Bishops with the consent and approbation of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Malines, under the patronage of the Bishops of Belgium, and under the auspices of charitable persons both in Europe and America, who take a lively interest in the missions of the vast American continent.

The object of the institution is to procure for young men who desire to consecrate themselves to the missions of North America, a sure and easy means of pursuing their vocation.

The students are taught the English and German languages, and after having gone through a course of theology and after having received the instructions necessary for their holy mission and the requirements of the country which they are destined to evangelize, may be allowed to enter the more profound branches of the celebrated Catholic University of Louvain.

The missionaries educated in the American College are destined to remain secular priests, and, as such, will labor in the places assigned them by their respective Ordinaries.

Applicants for admission must have received the permission of their Ordinary, and must be furnished with certificates of good conduct and have aptitude for the study of theology or philosophy. Those who enter after having been ordained priests will be sent to America and become affiliated to a diocese as soon as they are judged sufficiently qualified for the work of the missions. Students who pay their own pensions will have the right of choosing any diocese they please amongst those whose Bishops are patrons of the institution. Those who do not pay for themselves will be at the disposition of the Rt. Rev. Patrons who secure payment of their expenses. Students whose expenses are paid by burses founded by charitable persons will be placed according to the intention of the founder. Charitable persons in Europe are contributing to the foundation of burses in the College for the purpose of educating young men for the American missions. It is earnestly hoped that the Rt. Rev. Prelates of America will employ their influence to secure similar foundations for the institution by zealous and charitable persons in the New World.

The Rector would respectfully request the Patrons of the Institution, as well as other American Prelates who desire to place students in the College, to inform him of their intention at least two months before the opening of the scholastic year which begins on the first of October.

In case the number of applicants should be greater than can be received, the preference will be given to the students of those Prelates who have contributed towards the foundation. Students who wish to enter should be at least sufficiently advanced in their studies to begin philosophy. The annual pension for board including bedding is $140 in advance.

J., but finding it ill adapted for the purpose of a novitiate and boarding school purchased the Chegaray Mansion, Madison, N. J., of which they took possession in 1860. Finding the distance from the railroad station to be a disadvantage to the schools, the Sisters built a new Convent and Academy at Convent Station in 1878, where the Motherhouse is located. CONVENT at 114–116 E. 86th st., New York City. Established May 1892.
The work of the Sisters is to visit and nurse the sick poor in their own houses, and to give religious instruction to children und adults. The Sisters have no schools, but receive children on their leaving the public schools in the afternoon for catechism classes, both for boys and girls; have Sunday and evening meetings for older girls engaged in business houses. Many converts, or Catholics whose religious education is deficient, are instructed individually and prepared for the Sacraments. The same work is done for the colored people. All the works are undertaken with the view of helping the Souls in Purgatory, not only by prayers, but also by works of mercy spiritual and corporal; and they are entirely gratuitous, nothing being accepted either from the sick poor, the parents of children instructed, or their friends. The Sisters depend upon Divine Providence, and the free gifts of those whose devotion to the Holy Souls prompts them to aid a Society devoted to work for the living and the dead. SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH (of Carandolet).

The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph was founded in the city of Puy, France, in the year 1650, and rapidly developed itself in most of the chief cities of the land, when the French revolution of 1789 demolished all, or nearly all Convents. After the subsequent restoration of religious Orders in France, the Institute was reorganized in Lyons, which House became the General Motherhouse of the Congregation and the parent of all subsequent establishments. In 1836 six Sisters from the Motherhouse of Lyons, at the request of Bishop Rosati of St. Louis, came to found a House at Carondolet, near St. Louis, which then became the chief Motherhouse in this country, without however being dependent on Lyons. All the Houses of the Sisters of St. Joseph in the United States and Canada, except those of New Orleans, Cincinnati, St. Augustine, Fla., and Savanah, Ga., owe their origin either directly or indirectly to the Motherhouse of St. Louis. As however, in the early days the Institute was considered diocesan, it naturally followed that many Branch or Novitiate Houses should be established, until in 1861, by the authority of His Holiness, Pius IX., the Congregation was reorganized under approved Rules and Constitutions and subjected to the immediate government of a Superioress General who resides at the Motherhouse of St. Louis, and to whose jurisdiction all the Houses thereafter founded by this House, were to be subject.

GENERAL MOTHERHOUSE at Paris, France.

AMERICAN PROVINCE OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

During the Revolution of 1789, all communities of religious ladies disappeared from France and on the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin in the year 1793, a new religious order had its heroic beginning, viz.: that of the Daughters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The founders of the new Institute were Rev. Pere de Clorievierre, provincial of the Society of Jesus in Paris, aided by Peres Barat and Narin of his community. Nearly 300 ladies who had been professed in the old religious orders, but who had been banished from their convents by the Revolutionists, quickly joined this Society, and in a short space of time we find them in the schools, orphanages, hospitals —— they were directing nearly all the charitable institutions previously directed by the banished orders.

The Daughters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary follow the Rule of the Society of Jesus; the Jesuit system of instruction is adopted in all their educational establishments. They do not wear a distinctive religious habit but merely the ordinary secular dress. The members are known to the outside world by the names given them by their parents in baptism. The order is established in all parts of the civilized world. The nuns adopt themselves to circumstances and to the people amongst whom they labor. The Institute is in full communion with and the Rule and Constitutions have been formally approved by the Vicar of Christ.

The Society was introduced into the United States in 1853 by the venerable Mademoiselle Anne Pauget, Madame Victorine Boucher, Miss Ernestine Nardin, Madame Marie Le Masson, Mademoiselle Veronica Le Claire, Miss Marie Mongey, Madame Marie Lambert, Madame Ida Rompé and Miss Barbara Schrieter, all volunteers. As in Europe, the success of the order in this country has been marvellous and their institutions have been crowded both by the wealthy and the cultured and the poor and the lowly. In the United States the members of the order conduct the following good works: Academies for the higher education of young ladies, Kindergartens and Preparatory Schools for little girls and boys, Parochial Schools for both sexes, Missions for Indians, Trades Schools for deaf and dumb boys and girls, Homes for working-girls of good character, both while in and out of employment, Institutes for the improved instruction of deaf-mutes of both sexes (pure, oral and combined methods), Industrial Schools, where poor girls and orphans are taught trades, Day Nurseries for the children of working mothers, Night Refuges for homeless women and children, Orphan Asylums for both white and Indian girls, educational and industrial Missions for Italian children, Homes for aged ladies, and a House of Refuge for aged and infirm priests. Aspirants who apply for admission, even though they are uneducated and without money, will be trained for the Schools, if they evince talent. All aspirants must present letters from their confessor. The teachers of the order are obliged to pass the academic and normal courses before they will be permitted to teach in a parish school, hence the high grade of scholarship among the teachers of the order.

VISITATION NUNS.

The Order of the Visitation was founded at Annecy (Savoy) in 1610 by St. Francis de Sales, Bishop and Prince of Geneva, and St. Jane Frances Fremiot de Chantal, for the purpose of opening a Retreat to persons desirous of the religious life, too infirm in body to enter an austere Order; there to sanctify themselves by prayer and good works, and to help the salvation of souls, using for that all the means in their power, as prayer, self-sacrifice, charity of any kind compatible with the Rule; retreats and spiritual exercises offered to souls desirous of greater perfection. The intention of the holy Bishop, was not, he says it expressly, to occupy his daughters with the education of young girls, nevertheless, he allowed some few in the monasteries, whose parents destined them to be formed more for solid piety than for the world; and this has been observed almost universally with the said conditions. The Monasteries of the Visitation although spread through all countries even during the life time of the Founder, have no Superior General, they are independent of each other, nevertheless the holy Bishop of Geneva gave them a bond of union, which he deemed stronger than human means. He wished all the Visitation Houses kept in an intimate union, by a mutual Charity, and child-like confidence towards the Motherhouse at Annecy, whose duty it is in return for this to watch with a motherly love over the spiritual and temporal necessities, as well as the keeping up of the letter and the spirit of the Rule. Therefore, any house has the right to refer to Annecy in its troubles or difficulties, and each house more-over owes its assistance to the houses foundet from it. Three Centuries testify to the wisdom of the holy Founder, by the perfect union and preservation of the primitive spirit in the 170 Monasteries existing at present throughout the world. The Visitation was introduced in America in 1799 when the first Monastery was established at Georgetown, D. C. At that time the needs of the country requiring all good Catholics to unite their common strength in the work of Christian education, the Visitation in America had from its first beginning to extend the simple concession of the Founder, making education the principal object of its existence. This naturally made it deviate from the first idea of the Founder, and from the original respect of the Visitation of 1610.

VISITATION CONVENT, Wilmington, Del.

In 1892 Miss Mary L. Abell, daughter of A. S. Abell, Esq., of Baltimore, was inspired with the wish to establish the Visitation in its primitive spirit and rules. She made the proposition of this great undertaking to the Monastery of Wilmington, Del. (founded at Keokuk in 1853 by four Sisters from Montluel, France, and transferred to Wilmington, Deleware, in 1868). The proposition was accepted, and the plan laid out and executed under the guidance of the Right Rev. A. A. Curtis, D.D., Bishop of Wilmington. The Motherhouse of Annecy, sent at the request of the Community two Sisters to establish the Rule, one of whom, Mother Marie Alexandrine de Butler was elected Superior in June 1892. The new Monastery on Bayard ave. was completed in 1893 and on July 31, the transfer of the Community, 32 in number, was made from the Convent on Delaware ave. to its present location.

The following is a complete list of all places in the United States in which Catholic churches are located, or which are regularly attended.

Where the name alone of a place is given, it indicates that this place has a resident priest and all information regarding it will be found on the page given directly after it. For instance: Abbeville, La., 132, indicates that Abbeville is a place with a resident priest and all information regarding Abbeville will be found by referring to page 132.

Where a second name is given in parentheses it indicates that the first named place is a mission attended from the place given in parentheses, thus: Abingdon, Md. (St. Stephen's) 67, indicates that Abingdon is a mission attended from St. Stephen's and all information regarding Abingdon can be found by referring to St. Stephen's on page 67.

Where the name of a place is given in Italics it indicates that it is the post-office of the place given directly after it or directly preceding it, for instance: Alma, Wash., Okonagon, 399, indicates that Alma is the Post-Office of Okonagon and all information is given on page 399 under Okonagon.

EPIPHANY APOSTOLIC COLLEGE, Highland Park, Baltimore, Md.

Nine Millions of the African Race Are in this country, less than two hundred thousand of whom are members of the True Church. More than half do not profess any sort of Christianity, and of those who do, a great proportion follow but low and superstitious forms of the more vulgar Protestant sects, yet the colored people are naturally intelligent, have admirable moral qualities, and are remarkably gifted by nature with the religious sense, being fond of participating in public worship, easily lead to accept the truth of revelation, and have a bright perception of the beauties of a moral and religious life.

THE HARVEST IS GREAT. In one word, there is a ripe harvest of converts ready at our very door. A whole race of men, newly elevated to the dignity of American citizenship, whose career in the world is barely beginning, are willing to hear the Word of Life, and whose future depends upon Holy Church's success among them.

The Epiphany Apostolic College.

Into this College youths are received for their college course, receiving a good classical and scientific education. It is called apostolic to express its purpose of fostering the missionary spirit among its students.

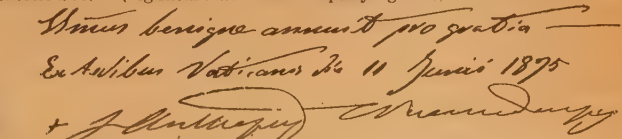
The spiritual benefits will be found in the magazine.

To the Friends of the Mission Helpers, our Subscribers and Angels:

OUR HOLY FATHER'S BLESSING.

"Mother M. Joseph, of the Mission Helpers, humbly prostrate at the feet of Your Holiness, begs you to grant to the Angels and Subscribers of "THE FLIGHT," the Apostolic Blessing and Plenary Indulgence in "Articulo Mortis," in the usual form of the Church as prescribed by the Apostolic See." (Signature as on accompanying cut.)



Benigne annuit pro gratia
Ex Aedibus Vaticanis die 11 Junii 1875
+ J. Archiepus Philadelphiensis

The Sisters visit Hospitals, Jails, the Penitentiary, Almshouses and other public Institutions in Baltimore and Washington to the number of thirty-one. They have sewing schools, which are means to Catechism, in nine different parts of the city and counties.

They also visit the homes of the Poor.

The Sisters also go to other portions of the state to prepare classes for first Holy Communion and Confirmation. Not teaching parochial schools, Divine Providence is their only reliance, hence a vocation to this institute demands in an heroic degree, earnestness of purpose and a love of the Cross.

All the works are done for the suffering souls, all the members of this Community making the "Heroic Act." They suffer, work and pray for the souls in Purgatory.

No. 7, Bible House, - - - - - - - NEW YORK.

CHOIR AND HYMN BOOKS.

Catholic Chorister. A new collection of Sacred Music for the morning and evening service of the Catholic Church. In two volumes Compiled by B. Hamma.
Volume I. Morning Service.....net, $1 50
Volume II. Evening Service.....net, 1 25
Both volumes bound in one.....net, 2 50

In this collection we find gathered together all that one could wish for, to aid in the proper rendering of the Morning and Evening service, (i. e. Mass and Vespers.)

The compositions of the best authors are presented in a manner calculated to please the most critical, and with a directness and simplicity which will recommend the compilation to choirs possessed with but a moderate degree of skill.

Volume II. contains two sets of Vesper chants, the Vespers for the Dead, Vesper Hymns, Antiphons to the Bl. V. M. and a choice number of pieces for benediction.

Catholic Youth's Hymnal, or Popular Sacred Melodies, for church and private devotion. Arranged and compiled with a special view to the wants of Juvenile choirs, Convents, &c., by B. Hamma.....net, $0 60

The present volume, as the title shows, while comprising most of the material required to be sung at High Mass and Vespers as well as a large variety of English hymns, is specially intended for the young. That these should be found largely represented in Sunday Schools and in Convent choirs will of course, be found entirely natural. Now the music has been composed, selected and arranged exclusively for them, i. e. for two equal voices, within moderate compass, of easy comprehension and execution, yet nowhere trival, never unworthy of the theme, and never of the style of musical workmanship that would set sensitive people's teeth on edge.

All choir directors, heads of Convents, in fact all persons interested in Church Music should examine this hymnal.

Responses at High Mass Organ accompaniment to Responses, Prefaces, Pater Noster and Ite Missa Est, in different keys and for the different Feasts. Containing also in an appendix a collection of short, easy and pleasing voluntaries. Compiled by J. Fischer. .....net, $2 00

COLLECTIONS OF ORGAN MUSIC.

Battmann. J. L. Gems for the Cabinet Organ. Vol. 1. 34 Marches. Bound in Cloth .....net, $1 50

Kern's Organ Gems. (Orgelschatz.) Consisting of 84 Original Preludes and Postludes for Pipe or Reed Organ. Composed by C. A. Kern. Bound in flexible cloth.....$2 00

We can most cordially commend this new collection to all lovers of good and genuine organ music. It contains many valuable compositions, remarkable for thoroughly church-like motives and contrapuntal work, not difficult and splendidly effective. The melodic and harmonic construction of all the pieces is most excellent, and we can safely consider it the most deserving work of this kind ever published.

Liebig, L. Six Festival Preludes for Pipe Organ.....$0 75

Although termed "Festival Preludes", they are by no means difficult, but very effective.

Our stock of CHURCH MUSIC of every description is the largest and most complete in this country.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the following letter, which explains itself:

GENTLEMEN:—

For the past three years I have been using your wines for Altar purposes at St. Prokopius Abbey. I have thoroughly satisfied myself that they are absolutely pure and I have always found them uniform and excellent in quality and, in short, just as you represent and guarantee them.

For a pure wine, which has not been treated but has "made itself" I heartily recommend yours.

Respectfully yours,

Small Lamps for Altar Decoration.

Fairy Lamp.

(For Fairy Light Candles.)

Each, $1.00.

FAIRY LAMPS.

Fairy Lamps are made entirely of Bisque and Polished Brass, thus a very pleasing effect is obtained, with absolute SAFETY from Fire and dropping of grease—both inseparable with Candles.

The PATENT "FAIRY" LIGHTS have double wicks, give a beautiful soft steady light; are always the same height, and the last hour's burning is even more brilliant than the first; they are not effected by the strongest draught, require no attention after lighting, and will burn upwards of 10 hours—at a very moderate cost; they can be instantly extinguished and readily re-lighted.

The Lamps require no cleaning and never wear out; when burning they fully realize their title of "FAIRY" LIGHTS. The Lights are sold separately in boxes containing 11 Lights at 50 Cents per box.
